

FLC.Fund Privacy Policy

Effective Date: October 1, 2026

Introduction

This Privacy Policy explains how Camp Emmanuel, a ministry of Liberty Christian Fellowship (“Liberty Christian Fellowship,” “we,” “us,” or “our”), collects, uses, stores, and shares personal information when you visit or use our websites and fundraising services.

This Policy applies to www.campemmanuelobx.com, www.libertyobx.com, and flc.fund, including related fundraising campaigns and services operated by Liberty Christian Fellowship and Camp Emmanuel.

FLC.Fund supports fundraising activities conducted by Liberty Christian Fellowship and its ministry, Camp Emmanuel. Our websites may also provide information about our ministry, camp programs, charitable activities, and related services.

We are committed to respecting your privacy and handling personal information responsibly. This Policy describes the information we collect, how we use it, when we share it, and the choices and rights available to you.

By using our websites or providing personal information to us, you acknowledge the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

I. Information We Collect

We may collect personal information that you voluntarily provide when you make a donation, participate in a fundraising campaign, contact us, or use our websites and services.

Depending on how you interact with us, the information we collect may include:

- Contact information: Your first and last name, mailing address, email address, and phone number.
- Donation information: The amount and date of your donation, the fundraising campaign you support, transaction status, and related donation records.
- Dedications and logos: Dedication messages, commemorative messages, and logos you submit in connection with a fundraising campaign.
- Communication information: Messages, questions, feedback, or other information you send to us.

- Account information: Information associated with an account, if account registration is available.
- Payment information: Information necessary to process your donation. Donations through FLC.Fund are processed by Stripe, our third-party payment processor.

We may also automatically collect certain technical information when you visit our websites, including your IP address, browser type, device information, operating system, referring website, pages visited, and dates and times of access.

We collect information when you voluntarily provide it, when it is necessary to process a donation or provide a requested service, and through the technologies described in this Policy.

II. How We Use Your Information

We may use personal information for the following purposes:

- To process and administer donations.
- To provide donation confirmations and receipts, where applicable.
- To administer and manage fundraising campaigns operated by Liberty Christian Fellowship and Camp Emmanuel.
- To maintain accurate donation, financial, and accounting records.
- To communicate with donors and supporters about donations, transactions, inquiries, and campaign activities.
- To manage dedication messages, logos, or other materials submitted in connection with fundraising campaigns.
- To display donor names or dedication messages publicly when donors choose to make them public.
- To provide information about our ministry, camp programs, charitable activities, and services.
- To send ministry updates, newsletters, and fundraising appeals where permitted by law and, when required, with your consent.
- To operate, maintain, secure, and improve our websites and services.
- To detect, investigate, and prevent fraud, unauthorized transactions, security incidents, or other misuse.
- To comply with applicable laws, regulations, legal obligations, and lawful requests.
- To carry out other purposes disclosed to you when you provide your information or with your consent.

We use personal information in ways that are consistent with the purposes for which it was collected, as permitted by applicable law.

III. Donations and Payment Processing

FLC.Fund supports fundraising activities conducted by Liberty Christian Fellowship and its ministry, Camp Emmanuel.

Donations made through FLC.Fund are processed by Stripe, our third-party payment processor. Stripe processes payment transactions and related payment information in accordance with its own privacy policy, security practices, and applicable terms.

Stripe processes payment card details directly. FLC.Fund does not store full payment card numbers on its systems. We may receive transaction-related information from Stripe, including donation amounts, transaction dates, payment status, and other information necessary to administer donations and maintain financial records.

We use donation information to process and document contributions, provide confirmations or receipts where applicable, maintain financial records, respond to donor inquiries, prevent fraud, and fulfill legal and accounting obligations.

We may retain relevant donor and transaction information for as long as necessary to fulfill these purposes and meet applicable recordkeeping requirements.

For more information about how Stripe handles personal information, please review Stripe's Privacy Policy:

<https://stripe.com/privacy>

IV. How We Share Personal Information

We do not sell, rent, or lease our donor lists to third parties.

We may share personal information in the following circumstances:

Payment processing. We share information with Stripe as necessary to process donations, verify transactions, prevent fraud, and administer payments.

Ministry operations. We may share relevant donor and donation information with authorized personnel of Liberty Christian Fellowship and Camp Emmanuel to administer fundraising campaigns, maintain financial records, respond to donor inquiries, and manage ministry activities.

Service providers. We may share information with trusted third-party providers that help us host and maintain our websites, store information, provide technical support, send communications, and protect our services. These providers may access personal information as necessary to perform services on our behalf, subject to applicable contractual and legal requirements.

Legal and safety requirements. We may disclose information when reasonably necessary to comply with applicable law, respond to lawful legal process, protect our rights or property, investigate suspected fraud, or protect the safety of individuals or the public.

With your consent. We may share information for additional purposes when you have authorized us to do so.

We do not authorize our service providers to use donor information for their own unrelated marketing purposes where prohibited by our agreements or applicable law.

V. Publicly Displayed Donor Information and Dedications

FLC.Fund allows donors to choose whether their names or dedication messages appear publicly on a fundraising campaign page or other public-facing website, where these options are available.

When making a donation, donors may select the available public-display option to indicate whether they want their name or dedication message displayed publicly. Donors who choose not to display this information publicly will not have their names or dedication messages intentionally displayed publicly through this feature.

Information that a donor chooses to display publicly may be visible to other website visitors and may be copied, shared, or indexed by third-party search engines. We cannot guarantee that third parties will remove information they have independently copied or retained.

Donation processing and financial recordkeeping may still require us to maintain donor information privately, regardless of whether a donor chooses public display.

Public-display preferences apply to the information covered by the relevant choice. They do not necessarily determine what information is retained internally for transaction processing, accounting, legal compliance, or other purposes described in this Policy.

If you have questions about publicly displayed information or wish to request its removal or correction, please contact us using the information in Section XIV. We will review requests and take appropriate action where reasonably possible and permitted by law.

VI. Cookies and Similar Technologies

Our websites may use cookies and similar technologies to support website functionality, maintain security, remember preferences, and improve the visitor experience.

Cookies are small text files that may be stored on your device when you visit a website. Their use and functionality may vary depending on the website features and services you access.

You can generally manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of some website features.

Where required by applicable law, we will provide additional notices or obtain consent for relevant data collection and processing activities.

VII. Data Security and Retention

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards designed to protect personal information against unauthorized access, loss, misuse, alteration, or disclosure.

Access to personal information is limited to individuals and service providers who need it for legitimate operational, administrative, or legal purposes.

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfill the purposes described in this Policy, administer donations and campaigns, maintain financial and accounting records, resolve disputes, prevent fraud, and comply with applicable legal obligations.

Retention periods may vary depending on the type of information and the circumstances in which it was collected.

When information is no longer needed, we will take reasonable steps to delete it, destroy it, or otherwise handle it in accordance with our retention practices and applicable law.

No method of electronic transmission or storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

VIII. Your Privacy Rights and Requests

Depending on applicable law and the circumstances, you may have rights regarding your personal information, including the right to:

- Request information about the personal information we maintain about you.
- Request correction of inaccurate personal information.
- Request deletion of personal information, subject to applicable exceptions.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.
- Opt out of certain communications.
- Exercise other privacy rights available under applicable law.

To submit a privacy request, please contact us using the information in Section XIV. We may need to verify your identity before fulfilling certain requests.

We will review and respond to requests in accordance with applicable law.

Some information may need to be retained even when a deletion request is made. For example, donation and transaction records may be retained to comply with accounting requirements, fulfill legal obligations, prevent fraud, resolve disputes, or document charitable contributions.

We do not sell personal information as customer or donor lists. If applicable privacy laws provide additional rights or require specific notices or opt-out mechanisms, we will honor those requirements.

IX. Children's Privacy

Our websites and fundraising services are not intended to knowingly collect personal information directly from children under the age of 13 without the protections required by applicable law.

If we learn that we have collected personal information from a child under 13 in circumstances where the collection was not permitted, we will take appropriate steps to address the situation, including deleting the information when required.

A parent or legal guardian who believes that a child has provided personal information to us may contact us using the information in Section XIV.

X. Email and Other Communications

We may send communications related to your donations, transactions, fundraising campaign participation, inquiries, or use of our services. These may include donation confirmations, receipts, service announcements, and important administrative notices.

Where permitted by law, we may also send ministry updates, newsletters, and fundraising appeals.

You may unsubscribe from promotional emails by following the unsubscribe instructions included in those messages, where available. Unsubscribing from promotional communications will not necessarily stop essential transactional, legal, or administrative communications.

We do not use your contact information for unrelated third-party marketing in ways that are inconsistent with this Policy.

XI. Third-Party Websites and Services

Our websites may contain links to third-party websites, payment providers, or other external services.

These third parties operate independently and may have their own privacy policies, terms, and data collection practices. We encourage you to review their policies before providing personal information or completing a transaction through their services.

This Privacy Policy does not govern websites or services that we do not operate or control.

XII. Automatically Collected Information

When you visit our websites, certain technical information may be collected automatically as part of operating and maintaining the websites.

Depending on the website features and services you use, this information may include your IP address, browser type, device or operating system information, domain names, access times, referring website addresses, and information about how you interact with our websites.

Such information may be used for purposes including maintaining website functionality and security, troubleshooting technical issues, and supporting the operation and improvement of our services.

The information collected may vary depending on the website configuration and services in use. Where required by applicable law, we will provide additional notices or obtain consent for relevant collection and processing activities.

XIII. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our websites, fundraising activities, service providers, data practices, or legal obligations.

When we make material changes, we will take reasonable steps to notify users, such as posting an updated Policy on the relevant website or providing notice through appropriate communication channels.

The effective date at the beginning of this Policy indicates when the current version takes effect.

We encourage you to review this Policy periodically to stay informed about how we handle personal information.

XIV. Contact Information

If you have questions, comments, or requests regarding this Privacy Policy or the handling of your personal information, please contact us:
